

Largo Public Library Photocopying Services

The Largo Public Library provides coin operated photocopying machines for the convenience of library patrons. The machines are leased from an independent company which also provides a service contract for repairs. Except for minor servicing, such as replenishing the paper supply and adding toner, the library is not responsible for copier malfunctions.