LPD a Winner in Photo Contest! The Department of Justice, Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS) today announced the 12 winners of its fifth annual “Community Policing in Action” Photo Contest. The Largo Police Department was selected as one of the winners for this photo of Sgt. Cusumano and Ofc. Lynch helping a man clear his roof of debris during Hurricane Michael.

The COPS Office invited state, local, territorial, and tribal law enforcement agencies to submit one photo that best depicts community policing in action. Almost 150 agencies participated in the contest.

The 12 winning photos will be featured on the COPS Office website and social media accounts monthly during the 2019 calendar year. In addition, the winning agencies will be featured in articles in the COPS Office e-newsletter, The Community Policing Dispatch. See the other winners here: https://cops.usdoj.gov/html/dispatch/02-2019/2019_pc_winners.html

This was quite an accomplishment, but the real story here is how our officers went to the Panhandle to help others in need...

In Florida nearly 25 percent of all crashes involve a hit and run. Although the majority result in property damage, hit and run crashes can be deadly. The penalties for hit and run drivers changed on July 1, 2014 when the Aaron Cohen Life Protection Act was signed into law. Aaron Cohen, a 31-year-old avid cyclist and father of two was fatally struck by an alcohol impaired driver that fled the crash scene in February 2012 in central Florida. The hit and run driver was sentenced to two years in prison, a lesser sentence than what the motorist would have served had he been sentenced on a DUI manslaughter charge. The Aaron Cohen Life Protection Act imposes a mandatory minimum of 4 years for a driver convicted of leaving the scene of a crash resulting in a fatality. #StayAtTheSceneFL#AaronCohen

Yep phone scams are still a thing. The IRS will NEVER call you and threaten you with arrest or a lawsuit if payment is not made immediately, usually through a debit card. Don’t fall for it, protect your personal information. #TaxIdentityTheftAwarenessWeek
